After about 40 minutes' drive from town you are transported to the mist covered hill sides of Borneo Highlands with undulating terrain dotted by small scale pepper farms. You will alight at Bengoh, a delightful Bidayuh village and staging point for journeys by foot or rivers deep into the interiors. Here you will be given brief paddling instructions and safety briefing before proceeding down some steps to a small tributary where your parked kayaks awaits. A group photo will be taken before we embark on our kayaking adventure. This shaded stream with overhanging trees, steep banks and a bridge overhead has just enough room for your kayaks to get through and meanders a short distance before opening into the vista of Sg. Sarawak Kiri. The wider river allows easier passage and open up vistas with views of the secondary forests and the farmlands of the local villagers. You will see bananas and cocoa trees growing on these pockets of farm land. The gentle flowing river aids the journey and soon everyone will be paddling with confidence and enjoying the scenery as well as the fresh air. Sounds of birds and insects accompanied the kayakers along the entire journey. Sights of unique limestone rock outcrop formations on the right side of the river make a wonderful photo-opportunity for all. A short paddle away after this we will reach Kg Danu where we will alight on a pebbled island under a pedestrian only suspension bridge. Climb up some steps; take a short stroll across the suspension bridge and take in the panoramic views. (Packed lunch will be provided).
